ENGLAND ATHLETICS U15/U17 CHAMPIONSHIPS AND DISABILITY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The England Athletics Under 15 & Under 17 Track and Field Championships are always a real highlight of the domestic summer athletics season but perhaps 2021 has even more spotlight and more emotion behind it than before given the challenges that athletes, coaches, parents, officials, organisers, and volunteers have faced due to the COVID impacts of the last year.

Over the years we have seen many young athletes enjoy their first taste of national championship competition at this event, with many more taking important steps in their development towards senior success. This year will be no different and no doubt many of the athletes competing this weekend will have watched, and be watching with interest, the performances of the British & Northern Irish athletics team at the Olympic & Paralympic Games in Tokyo wondering what might be possible for them in the coming years if they continue to work hard on and off the track.

With the next Commonwealth Games also taking place in Birmingham next year, I am sure that some athletes competing this weekend will also be motivated to work hard for selection, if not for those games, then in 2026. This weekend's championships are very much a steppingstone for aspiring athletes on their journey to future successes.

Each athlete competing this weekend represents the efforts and commitment of the many people who have supported them, giving their time and expertise to helping the athlete prepare as well as they can. Their coach, club team managers, the athletes they have trained and competed with, many other volunteers in the club setting, and, of course, parents and family have all made significant contributions to the performances we will see this weekend.

I would like to thank, as ever, each person who has given help, in whatever form, to the athletes competing at these championships. The advice, encouragement and input given through good times and harder days is essential to these young athletes, especially given the various lockdowns and restrictions imposed that would surely have, at times, challenged the motivation and morale of these aspiring athletes. Your support has been invaluable during the last 12 months as we have worked together to navigate our sport through the various hurdles caused by COVID-19. Thank you.

I would like to thank every official who is involved this weekend for their contribution to these championships and the many other events they are involved in throughout the year, without them these events would not be able to take place. I would also like to thank our hosts at Manchester City Council for their partnership and work in supporting us to bring this Championships to this fine venue.

Enjoy the weekend and we trust you will continue to have an enjoyable and rewarding involvement in the sport whatever your future aspiration.

ENGLAND ATHLETICS U15/U17 CHAMPIONSHIPS AND DISABILITY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Welcome to what promises to be an amazing championship with its usual level of incredible, world class performances. Whether it's club or national champs or beyond and the Commonwealth or Olympic games, EA are here to support you on that journey.

And for those with recognised talent we have a talented athlete pathway starting at 17 years of age called the Youth Talent Programme (YTP). This is the first step on the Talent pathway designed to meet the needs of identified, talented English athletes aged between 16 and 18 years of age and their coaches.

The programme focuses on developing a dual career for the athlete through fulfilling their potential within the sport and, also in their education and employability. The programme aims to complement club provision and add value to the athlete and coach plan to help develop a broad range of skills, abilities and behaviours needed for senior success.

This is delivered through practical training sessions with likeminded athletes in their event group, performance support sessions and workshops. There is also the opportunity for coaches to access additional qualifications, mentoring and support delivered through the England Athletics YTP coaches.

For those athletes in full-time education, the YTP will allow the athlete to gain an academic support qualification (Diploma in Sporting Excellence) allowing progression either to further / higher education or to gain employment within a related field. Those athletes not in full-time education will be able to access the YTP content and use skills gained from their training to support their personal development and progression without the qualification.

We're taking applications right now, but hurry, it closes on 11 August 2021; go the website englandathletics.org for full details.

Participation programmes

England Athletics provides two key participation programmes:

funetics

funetics is a fun and inclusive programme, created by England Athletics, to help 4-11 year old children learn, develop and practice running, jumping and throwing all year round, for a healthy, active and confident future. The vision is for every primary school aged child in the country to be able to access funetics sessions and for these children and their parents and teachers to be involved in following their progress in this digitally-based trackable physical literacy programme. funetics is proud to welcome two of the sports' greatest competitors to help inspire children to take part. World and Commonwealth Heptathlon Champion Katarina Johnson-Thompson is the funetics ambassador and the funetics' insole partner, Enertor, brings with them the support of the world's fastest man, Usain Bolt.

Find out more by visiting funetics.co.uk

RunTogether

RunTogether is England Athletics' national recreational group-based running community with over 150,000 active runners in 2,718 groups. It provides fun, friendly, safer, supportive and inclusive opportunities for runners, whatever their ability or availability.

The idea of RunTogether is that running / jogging is more fun and easier to become part of a lifestyle when shared with others. RunTogether is a great social connector, bringing existing and new friendships together, and supporting every type of member: Runners, Run Leaders, Run Leader Mentors, Mental Health Champions and Guide Runners.

Find out more by visiting runtogether.co.uk

Two additional campaigns that England Athletics continues to deliver are:

THIS GIRL CAN

'This Girl Can Run' is a running activation programme originating from Sport England's parent 'This Girl Can' campaign and is supported by England Athletics.

There are over 127,350 women in the programme's social media community of whom c.30,000 have been influenced to run regularly.

#RunAndTalk

England Athletics' #RunAndTalk programme, supported by mental health charity Mind, aims to improve mental health through running. It supports 'Time to Talk Day' and 'World Mental Health Day' with both organised and ad hoc runs alongside the #RunAndRevise campaign to help students take a break from exam pressure. A network of over 1,000 volunteer Mental Health Champions in England Athletics affiliated clubs and RunTogether groups across England offer support for people to access the physical and mental wellbeing benefits of running, encourage conversations on the subject, raise awareness and help remove stigma.

CHAMPIONS PREVIEW

Having missed this event last year due to the pandemic, the country's best will be eager to make up for lost time at the England Athletics U17 and U15 Championships and U20 and U16 Disability Championships at the Manchester Regional Arena.

Many will have already gained titles at the recent English Schools Championships, while some such as Mia McIntosh and Isabelle Mardle have been showing themselves to be in record form.

UNDER-17 WOMEN

In the 80m hurdles, Mia McIntosh (Dacorum & Tring; Jake Awe) returns to the venue where at the English Schools last month she set a UK all-time best of 10.95 for the group.

Pole vaulter Gemma Tutton (Lewes; Richard Pilling) is another who leads her age-group all-time rankings. She lines up having vaulted 4.10m earlier this year. Rachel Clutterbook (Windsor, Slough, Eton & Hounslow; Shireen Higgins), who is sixth on the all-time list for her age category, heads the entries in the steeplechase with her PB of 4:56.4. Etty Sisson (Charnwood), who has made great progress in her move up to 300m this year, heads the line-up on times in her event, having clocked 38.79. Nandy Kihuyu (Hallamshire; Charlene Thomas), who set a championships record in the under-15 category two years ago, and Jessica Astill (Stevenage & North Herts; Paul Keeble) will hope to challenge. Halle Ferguson (Trafford; Andrew Wood), the under-20 and English Schools champion, heads the high jump entries. She is also entered in the triple jump, where Libby White (Ayr Seaforth; David Watson) is ranked first. English Schools 800m champion Amarisa Sibley (Blackheath & Bromley; Jon Bigg) against Scotland's Katie Johnson, who is the fastest this year. In the 1500m, Keira Brady-Jones (Wirral; Sarah Kearney) leads the rankings and won the Schools title. Meanwhile at 3000m, Schools champion Jess Bailey (Leven Valley; Tim Winder) comfortably the quickest in the field and capable of attacking the championships record of 9:34.9.

Under-17 men

The multi-talented Jake Minshull won the 800m titles indoors and outdoors in 2019 and will be looking to defend his title over two laps. He is also ranked first over 400m hurdles but instead he is also entered for the 80m hurdles and long jump.

Over 200m, Jamie Carrott (Charnwood) is the quickest in the field with 21.85 and he faces English Schools champion Joel Houslin (Thames Valley; Gary Telfer). The 400m entries are led by Calvin Smith (Shaftesbury Barnet; Nathan Rogers), who has run 48.88, and he will be challenged by Ben Sinclair (Manx), whom he just beat to gold at the English Schools. Frank Morgan (Carmarthen; Carol Jones) is quickest of the 3000m entries on 8:27.19 but looks set for a tough competition against Edward Bird (Poole; Mark Pauley) and TJ Jones (Wirral; Sara Kearney), who were a close first and second respectively at the Schools.In the high jump, Luke Ball (Yate; Jeremy Dale) and Jakub Walecki (Colchester Simon Hemmings) will be favourites.

Meanwhile, Sammy Ball (Reading; Michael Dyer) is ranked No.1 in the long jump and also competes here in the 100m hurdles, high jump and shot. In the 1500m steeplechase, Luke Birdseye (Windsor, Slough, Eton & Hounslow; Shireen Higgins) tops the entries on times and will be looking to cement his good form with a win in his first England Championships. Kai Barham (Dartford; Paul Head) looks to be a big favourite in the hammer to add to his Schools title from last month.

Under-15 girls

Isabelle Mardle (City of Norwich; Keith Yellop) earlier this year equalled Mia McIntosh's 75m hurdles under-15 best with 10.75 and she looks a contender to threaten the championship best of 10.91. She is also entered for the triple jump, where she would be also favourite, and the long jump. In the discus, Nubia Evans-Shields (City of Plymouth; John Edwards), who ranks fifth in the under-15 girls' all-time list, is more than 10m better than her closest competitor on the form list with 41.14m. Dulcie Yelling (Brighton & Hove; Bob Willows) is similarly ranked on the all-time list in the hammer and she will be hoping to reverse her defeat at the English Schools to 2021 UK No.1 Ayesha Jones (Marshall Milton Keynes; Janina Pownall). Callia Downey (BFT Track Academy; Tamunonengiye-Ofori Ossai) will be favourite in the 300m as she leads the rankings on 39.71. Eloise Macdonald (Andover) is looking for more silverware after her English Schools hammer win.

Under-15 boys

Tom Rutter (Hertford & Ware; John Waugh) lies sixth on the all-time list in the under-15 boys' javelin (61.44m) and he will be a strong favourite in his event. English Schools 300m champion Zico Jones (Shaftesbury Barnet; Ty Holden) steps down to 200m, where he leads the entries on times (22.30). In the 1500m, rankings leader Alden Collier (Chiltern; Nick Hughes) will be hoping to add to his English Schools win. High jumper Sam Wright (Essex Schools; Simon Jennings) aims to follow his English Schools win with another and he leads entries on performances this year with 1.90m. He is also one of the quickest in the 80m hurdles, where Elliott Hanslow (Crawley; Matthew Overall) leads the way. Alexander Abebrese (Herne Hill) will be a big favourite in the shot as he seeks to improve on his bronze from last year.

Disability events

In the wheelchair races, Illias Zghoundi (Weir Archer Academy; David Lucas) and Oliver Porter (Leeds City; Paul Moseley) look set to have a series of battles over various distances, with both entered for multiple events from 100m to 800m. Esme O'Connell is fastest of the entries in the ambulant women's 100m as the disability events feature a total of 12 athletes altogether competing at under-15 to under-20 level.
